Union's Commitment to Adult Students

Adult students matter at Union University. We understand the unique challenges you face balancing school with work and family responsibilities. Such an investment of time and effort should be rewarded with more than just a degree. At Union, this high level of excellence is achievable in a program that prepares graduates for meaningful work as visionary leaders and thinkers. You can complete your bachelor's degree in as little as 18 months by attending class one night a week. With five programs and campuses in Jackson, Germantown, and Hendersonville, you choose the program and location that works best for you.

Then, take advantage of an educational experience that is professionally relevant, academically rigorous, and distinctly Christian.

What Our Graduates Are Saying

Completing my undergraduate degree has been a 15 year journey; encompassing three educational institutions. Union endowed me with the tools and optimism that I needed to not just continue my journey, but to reach the finish line. A dream deferred has now become a dream fulfilled.

Angie Allen, Trichologist

The adult studies program at Union University provided a dynamic course of study that equipped me with the knowledge and diverse skill set needed to fully prepare me for the next stages of my career. The faculty and staff are prepared to assist students in reaching their goals, no matter what it takes.

Kellie Carroll, Coordinator for County School District, Office of Coordinated School Health, and nationally-published author

I highly recommend Union University's BSOL program to anyone seeking a quality academic program within a Christ-centered environment. The faculty and staff are caring individuals who are truly interested in the growth and development of the students. Earning my degree has better equipped me to effectively serve and minister to others.

Harold Pruitte, Project Manager

I just accepted a great new position for a Canadian-based e-learning company. I never would have been offered the position without my BSOL degree. I cannot begin to stress the importance of the organizational skills, marketing strategies, and business savvy that I gained through my education at Union.

Beth Nash, Clinical Education Coordinator

The Union University BSOL program was one of the most rewarding experiences of my life. Each professor and staff member was committed to assist me in every way. The culture within Union motivated me to want to pursue even more intellectual and professional challenges.

Mark W. Geary, Plant Manager

Having been a non-traditional student at other universities, I was surprised and delighted to experience the Union difference. The supportive staff and caring environment gave me every impression that they existed to help me. Union's BSOL program far exceeded my expectations!
