Purpose Statement

The Doctor of Ministry with an Emphasis in Expository Preaching is designed to enhance the art and practice of expository preaching.

Program Outcomes

• Deeper understanding of the nature and purpose of expository preaching, informed by a biblical, theological, and practical study of expository preaching
• Advanced competency in the preparation and delivery of expository sermons
• Demonstrable research skills evidenced by a fresh contribution to the praxis of expository preaching through a doctoral dissertation or project
• Expertise in advancing the ministry and practice of expository preaching
• Professional growth in related ministry dimensions such as personal spiritual formation, biblically balanced ministry, church renewal and revival, and evangelism and global missions

Admissions Requirements

Application Foundations

Applicants must be employed by or hold a recognized position in vocational Christian ministry at the time of their application. Preference in admission is given to students who have advanced preparation in biblical languages. The following are the minimum levels of education and experience that an applicant must fulfill before beginning seminars.

• A Master of Divinity or its equivalent from a regionally accredited seminary. See below for information regarding the “Academic Foundation;” i.e., the “Master of Divinity Equivalency.”
• A grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale throughout all master’s-level studies.
• Three full years of vocational Christian ministry after completion of master’s study.

Prospective students are requested to contact the Doctor of Ministry Office if they have questions about whether they have established an adequate foundation the Doctor of Ministry study as indicated above. International applicants are welcome, but must contact the Doctor of Ministry Office for additional admission requirements.

Academic Foundation

The standard academic preparation for the Union University Doctor of Ministry is a Master of Divinity from a regionally accredited seminary, university, graduate school of religion, or divinity school. (These are collectively referred to below as “accredited graduate divinity schools.”) Preference is given to applicants whose master’s work includes at least 6 semester hours of biblical Greek and 6 semester hours of biblical Hebrew.

Union University recognizes that many prospective students have enrolled in accredited graduate divinity schools in programs of study other than the Master of Divinity. Such degrees include the Master of Christian Studies, the Master of Religious Education, or the Master of Arts in a discipline such as Old Testament. We therefore have established that “Master of Divinity Equivalency” also meets the academic requirement for admission to the Doctor of Ministry. Each applicant in this category will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. However, such applicants should have received a master’s degree from an accredited graduate divinity school and they must have earned a minimum of 81 semester hours of master’s-level credit in accredited graduate divinity schools before they will be admitted to our Doctor of Ministry program of study. Guidelines for meeting requirements for each category of study are as follows.
Biblical, Theological, and Historical Studies
1. Old Testament, 9-12 hours, including at least 6 hours of survey
2. New Testament, 9-12 hours, including at least 6 hours of survey
3. Theology, 6-9 hours, including at least 6 hours of survey
4. Church History, 6-9 hours, including at least 6 hours of survey
5. Hermeneutics (Interpreting the Bible), 3-6 hours

Languages and Preaching Studies
6. Biblical Greek, 0-9 hours
7. Biblical Hebrew, 0-9 hours
8. Homiletics (Communicating the Bible), 6-9 hours

Ministry Studies
9. Leadership or Religious Education, 3-9 hours
10. Christian Ethics or Christian Apologetics, 3-9 hours
11. Christian Counseling or Pastoral Care, 3-9 hours
12. Evangelism and/or Missions, 3-9 hours

For each of these 12 categories, the first number in the right column is the minimum number of semester hours required in that category to meet Master of Divinity Equivalency. Thus, 51 of the 81 required semester hours are specified. The remaining 18 hours may be gained in a number of ways, including courses that fit in categories not mentioned above, such as spiritual formation or philosophy of religion. Thus, for example, all students must have earned at least 6 church history hours in order to meet Master of Divinity Equivalency. The second number in the right column is the maximum number of hours that students should complete in that category as they seek Master of Divinity Equivalency. Thus, for example, once prospective students have completed 9 hours in church history, they should broaden their preparation by selecting courses from the other categories. The Doctor of Ministry Program Director provides case-by-case assessment of each student seeking Master of Divinity Equivalency. Applicants will be informed in writing when Master of Divinity Equivalency has been established only after Union University has received official transcripts from all accredited graduate divinity schools the student has attended.

Application Requirements
• The completed official application form along with a $50 non-refundable application fee. The official form is included as part of this document.
• Official transcripts from all institutions of higher education attended since high school. A transcript request form is included with this document. Applicants are responsible for photocopying this request form as needed and sending it to their respective institutions. Many institutions make it possible to request this via the internet.
• A ministry endorsement letter, showing that the applicant’s church-related employer supports the applicant’s intention to pursue doctoral study. The form included in this application should be completed and returned to the Doctor of Ministry Office by the employer.
• Three evaluative references. Applicants are responsible for signing the waiver on each form and providing each reference an envelope and postage for returning the reference directly to the Doctor of Ministry Office.
• A personal history essay describing significant influences in life, particularly conversion and spiritual growth, call to ministry, important ministry experiences, and current understanding and practice of preaching. This essay should be 8-10 pages, double spaced, using 12-point font and one-inch margins.
• A sermon manuscript that demonstrates exegesis of a biblical text. It is to be a complete manuscript that includes every word that would be used in sermon delivery, including introduction, illustrations, and call for response. The manuscript should be appropriate for a sermon lasting twenty to thirty minutes. This manuscript should double spaced, using 12-point font and one-inch margins.

Application Deadlines
Applicants must complete all elements of their application file and be officially accepted into the program before they can enroll in their first seminars. The size of each entering class is limited, and preference is given to students who apply early. The deadline for receiving the application and application fee is March 1. The deadline for receiving all other application materials is May 1. A personal or telephone interview with the Program Director is scheduled by the Doctor of Ministry Office after all elements of the application file are received. The deadline for the admission interview is May 15. Applicants are notified of their admission status not later than June 1.

Transfer of Credit
Up to six hours (two seminars) may be considered for transfer of doctoral level credit from a regionally accredited institution of higher learning, provided the grades are B or higher. Applicants must request this in writing from the Program Director, who advises the student in writing at the time of the official acceptance of the program.

Doctoral Processes
Phase 1: Ministry Research Seminar (DMIN 620).
1. Pre-seminar week: students prepare at least three possible problems/projects that could become the focus of the DMin dissertation/project.
2. During the seminar week: students decide on a project topic, determine the research model/process they will follow, and begin developing a bibliography. During this week, the professor will work with each student in helping secure a STM faculty member to serve as dissertation chair. Dissertation chairs will be finalized not later than one month after the end of the seminar week.
3. During the post-seminar period:
   a. Students refine their topic (in conjunction with the professor of the research seminar and with their dissertation chair) and complete a proposal for their dissertation/project.
   b. The dissertation chair recruits the dissertation committee, consisting of two other persons. One of these will be an STM faculty member. The third person may be an STM faculty member, but may also be a UU faculty member from another discipline or may be a qualified non-faculty member, such as a pastor.
   c. The professor of the research seminar has responsibility for assigning the grade for the DMIN 620 seminar.

Phase 2: From the completion of the Ministry Research Seminar to the completion of all seminars.
1. The dissertation chair works with the student in research and further development of the project.
2. The dissertation chair works with the student and with the IRB (Institutional Review Board) to gain any necessary IRB approval.
3. The dissertation proposal is submitted to the DMin Committee of the STM faculty. The DMin Committee works with the dissertation committee and the student until the DMin Committee approves the proposal.

Phase 3: From the completion of all seminars to graduation.
1. After DMin Committee has given formal approval of the proposal and after the successful completion of all nine DMin seminars, the DMin program director will notify the student of official candidacy status.
2. The student must register for DMIN 800 the next semester after completing all nine seminars. Enrollment in DMIN 800 must continue for at least two consecutive semesters. During this time, the dissertation chair will work closely with the student to bring the dissertation to final form. It is during these two semesters ONLY that the dissertation chair will get teaching load credit (or financial consideration) for chairing a dissertation.
3. The student may register for DMIN 800 for up to four consecutive semesters. No break in registration will be permitted. (In exceptional circumstances, the student may appeal to the Dean of the School of Theology and Missions for a break in this continuous enrollment requirement or for extension beyond four semesters.)
4. The dissertation in final form must be submitted to the dissertation chair not later than Friday of the first week of the regular semester (fall or spring) at which the student expects to graduate. The chair will have one month to work with the student to make any further revisions.
5. A formal dissertation defense before the entire dissertation committee must occur not later than the beginning of fall break or spring break of the semester of graduation.
6. Any last-minute revisions must be finalized not later than one week before graduation. Three final copies of the dissertation must be submitted not later that one week before graduation.
Course Descriptions: Doctor of Ministry (DMIN)

610. Critical Issues in Expository Preaching (3) Summer
Corequisite: DMIN 615.
An examination of biblical, theological, incarnational, and practical principles related to the practice of ministry generally and preaching in particular. Included in this seminar will be a presentation of the “Covenant of Learning,” which students must fulfill on a continuing basis in order to remain in good standing in the program.

615. Spiritual Formation and Expository Preaching (3) Summer
Corequisite: DMIN 610.
An examination of the relationship between personal spiritual development and preaching. Models of spiritual growth will be discussed, emphasizing how preaching relates to life change in individuals, congregations, and societies. The relationship between God’s Word and God’s Spirit in expository preaching will be explored.

620. Ministry Research Seminar (3) Winter
Prerequisite: DMIN 610.
An introduction to methods of research necessary for completion of the DMinEP dissertation or project.

625. Sermon Content and Delivery (3) Winter
Prerequisites: DMIN 610 and 615.
Aspects of sermon content will be studied with a view to improving message content. Also, there will be an analysis and assessment of the dynamics of communication in relations to the practice of expository preaching. Biblical principles related to communication will be explored, as well as contemporary theory and models.

630. Expository Preaching and New Testament Texts (3) Summer
Prerequisites: DMIN 610 and 615.

635. Expository Preaching and Old Testament Texts (3) Winter
Prerequisites: DMIN 610 and 615.
An in-depth study of the genres of literature in the Old Testament, focusing on hermeneutical and homiletical issues related to preparing expository messages from the Old Testament.

640. Expository Preaching and Evangelism (3) Winter
Prerequisites: DMIN 610 and 615.
A consideration of how preaching engages culture and the world. Focuses on the dynamics of evangelistic preaching and preaching cross-culturally.

800. Project and Dissertation (3 each) Winter and Summer
Prerequisite: Successful completion of all nine DMIN seminars and permission of the Doctor of Ministry in Expository Preaching Program Director.
The writing of an original dissertation that contributes significantly to the praxis of expository preaching.
