Nina Heckler (2012). Chair and Assistant Professor of Sociology. B.A., University of Central Florida, M.A., Baylor University, M.A., St. Mary’s University, Ph.D., University of Alabama.

Mission Statement
The mission of the Department is to provide students with a broad background in the study of society and human relationships from a Christian perspective, to enable them to enter graduate programs or entry level positions in their respective discipline.

Curriculum
I. Sociology major—33 semester hours
The courses in Sociology are designed for two types of students: (1) those who desire pre-professional training for sociology or other related fields of human relations, and (2) those who seek to understand underlying principles in human relations, the role of custom and group psychology in collective behavior, the structure of society, the problems of group living, and the tendencies toward the improvement or the disintegration of society. Courses are designed to present both a practical and a scientific analysis of human relationships in the various areas of social life.

A. Core required of all SOC majors—18 hours
   1. SOC 211, 317, 417, 418, 422
   2. SOC 310 or 419

B. Concentration, select one:
   1. General Sociology—15 hours
      a. SOC 498
      b. SOC Elective Hours—12
   2. Social Organization—15 hours
      a. SOC 213 or 324
      b. SOC 411, SW 200, SW 335, PSY 213

II. Family Studies major—42 hours
The family, as a basic building block of society, is critical to the functioning of society as a whole. The contribution of the Christian community to the development of leaders in family relations is crucial. The Family Studies major focuses on the development of the individual in the context of family and society. The program is designed to prepare students for (a) professional careers in a variety of human service areas; (b) leadership roles in church, school, and community; (c) personal roles in family living; and (d) graduate education. Graduates who do not pursue graduate study typically find employment as parent educators, child life specialists and program directors in public and private agencies.

A. Prerequisites: SOC 211, PSY 213, SW 200.
B. SOC 225, 325, 333, 370, 411, 422, 425; CHR 243; COM 235; ECO 400; PSY 219; SW 335
C. Select 6 total hours from 2 different areas:
   1. SOC 310, 319, 321, 420
   2. PSY 313, 324, 418, 425, 435
   3. PEWS 113, 301
D. Optional experience: study at Focus on the Family Institute may substitute for one or more courses above. See the Department Chair for details.

IV. Family Studies minor—21 hours
A. SOC 225, 425
B. 15 semester hours from 2 different areas shown in I, B., C., D. of the major.

V. Sociology minor — 21 semester hours
A. SOC 211, 417
B. Fifteen SOC hours, 6 of which must be upper-level.

VI. Human Studies minor — 21 semester hours
The interdisciplinary Human Studies minor is designed to give flexibility to the student interested in education and human studies.
A. Include two of the following: PSY 213, SOC 211, SE 225.
B. Fifteen hours, 9 of which must be upper-level, from EDU, PSY, SE, SOC, SW.

Assessment of Majors
Sociology majors round out their program with SOC 498: Senior Capstone Seminar. Senior Sociology students engage in original research which draws upon theoretical knowledge acquired in SOC 417 and research methodology gained in SOC 422. A major original research and oral presentation are the cumulative outcomes of the Sociology major.

The capstone experience for Family Studies students is found in SOC 411: Internship. In this course students are given the opportunity to apply knowledge from their coursework, clarify their own professional objectives, and gain professional experience in an approved community agency. Family Studies students complete a substantive term paper and senior portfolio in the Internship.
Student Organizations

Pi Gamma Mu, national social science honor society, seeks to improve scholarship in social studies; to inspire service to humanity by an intelligent approach to the solution of social problems; and to engender sympathy towards others with different opinions and institutions. Students who have completed 20 hours of social science with a "B" average or above are eligible for membership.

Sociological Perspective Society (SPS) offers Sociology, Family Studies and Human Studies majors/minors opportunities for fellowship, sociological networking, and to guide individuals in the field; to open the field of Sociology to prospective students; and to demonstrate Christian love through ministry opportunities.

Student Awards

The Pi Gamma Mu Scholarship Leader Award is presented to the graduating member of the society with the highest academic average.
