UNION UNIVERSITY

GO BOLDLY

A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

I often remind our students that college can either be a greenhouse, where your faith grows and flourishes, or a graveyard, where it withers away. Here at Union, our close-knit community — where faith and knowledge unite — is deeply committed to providing a transformative academic environment where your faith will thrive. No matter what God is calling you to do, Union will prepare you to faithfully and courageously live a life dedicated to his kingdom. I look forward to seeing you grow at Union University, and then seeing where you will go in a lifetime of service to the Lord.

Samuel W. "Dub" Oliver, Ph.D.
President, Union University

OUR CORE VALUES

EXCELLENCE-DRIVEN

CHRIST-CENTERED

At Union, our four core values influence and permeate all that we do. We strive for excellence because we want to do all things for God's glory. We integrate top-tier academics with Christian faith in every program of study. We value one another, showing that commitment through our words and actions. And while we have a great history and heritage, we remain focused on the future, equipping our students for success in life.

Ted Kluck, associate professor of communication arts, is Union's journalism professor and adviser for its award-winning publication, Cardinal & Cream.

He loves Union's community, where people genuinely care for one another, and Union's commitment to excellent, Christian teaching.

"One of the unique things about Union is how we integrate faith with learning," he says. "It's not just about getting a degree, but about growing in your faith and understanding how it connects to your field of study."

ACADEMIC RESOURCES

Union offers a variety of support services for students to help them achieve their full academic potential. The Center for Academic Success provides personalized support through academic coaching, tutoring services and study resources that assist students in developing skills such as time management, test preparation and effective study techniques.

The Vocatio Center for Life Calling and Career, meanwhile, helps students discover, respond to and live out their calling in service to God and to others. Offering career counseling, job search assistance and resources for professional development, the Vocatio Center guides students in aligning their career goals with their skills, their values and their passions.

You'll have options ranging from homestyle meals, Mexican cuisine, pizza, deli sandwiches and wraps, traditional grill fare and a massive salad bar. And don't forget the dessert, with multiple choices available at each meal.

STUDENT HIGHLIGHT

MEET ADDI AGUAYO

Hometown: FRANKLIN, TN | CELL AND MOLECULAR BIOLOGY | Grad year: 2027

Addi Aguayo has found Union University to be a welcoming community where she thrives academically, socially and spiritually.

“Academically, I feel very challenged,” she says. “And spiritually, I feel like I grew, just being in community with other believers. Even through cross-country, we had our own Bible study, and we were able to learn about the Lord together and grow together.”

She is a member of Union’s cross-country team and is planning to pursue a career as a doctor.

“I really enjoyed how Union combines faith and academics, especially in my pre-med classes,” she says.
