

16th Annual Collegium on Christ, Knowledge, and Wisdom
Luther Hall
January 15th and 16, 2013

Tuesday, January 15, 2013

8:30-9:00	Welcome and Devotion on Colossians 1
9:00-10:00	Session One: Bible study and guided reflection on how your graduate or professional school experience has shaped you. What did you learn and what have you been trained to do?
10:00-10:15	Break
10:15- 11:30	Session Two: David Dockery Part I: Loving God with our Minds: Union's Distinctive Mission Part II: What is the Christian University For? The Place of Doctrinal Distinctives in Christian Higher Education
11:30 – 1:30	Lunch and Film
1:30 – 2:30	Session Three: The Gospel and the Disciplines: Hal Poe
2:30- 3:30	Session Four: Discussion on assigned readings: Hunter Baker

Wednesday, January 16, 2013

8:30	Morning Prayer
8:45- 9:45	Session Five: Hearing the Bible in an Academic Context: George Guthrie At Union the Bible stands at the center of our integration of faith and learning, but we must consider how, with integrity, we might integrate a biblical worldview with our academic disciplines.
9:45- 10:00	Break
10:00-10:45	Collegium II preview
10:45 – 11:45	Session Six: Academic Pre-suppositions: Hal Poe
11:45 -12:15	Lunch
12:15 – 1:15	Session Seven: Discussion on assigned readings: Hunter and Nan
1:15- 1:45	Session Eight: The Essentials for Continuing the Journey: Spiritual Disciplines and Community: Nan Thomas
1:45-2:00	Closing Prayers