

Union Course Design/Re-design Institute

July 30, 31, August 2, 2018

Center for Adult and Professional Studies

5:00-7:30

1938 Emporium Drive

Union Course Design Institute provides faculty with the tools, time and space to design or re-design their course based on student learning goals and objectives and thereby maximizing student learning.

Day One, July 30th: Design a course based on goals that begin with the end in mind

Welcome and Introductions: Nan Thomas, Associate Director of Faculty Development

Discussion: 1/ What do you think your students are after when they take a course?

2/ How does that influence your teaching? 3/ How does this fit with what you read from Bain?

Learning that Lasts at Union University: Ann Singleton, University Professor of Special Education; Associate Provost and Dean for Instruction

Creating Course goals

Day Two, July 31st: Develop Learning Objectives

Peer discussion of course goals

Creating Learning Objectives that Support Course Goals

Day Three, August 2nd: Assessment and Designing Assignments

Peer discussion of goals and objectives

Refine goals and objectives

Summative and Formative Assessment: Ann

Clarify criteria and standards used to assess student work based on course and learning objectives.

Participant Stories of Course Design and their best next step.