

THE CARLS-SCHWERDFEGER HISTORY LECTURE SERIES

presents its 27th annual lecture
featuring Bancroft Prize-winning historian

ODD ARNE WESTAD

YALE UNIVERSITY

“The Hinge: British Imperial Administrator James Bruce and the Re-Ordering of Empire, 1840-1860”

Monday, October 14 | 7:15 p.m.
G. M. Savage Memorial Chapel

Afternoon Lecture | 2:00 p.m.
G. M. Savage Memorial Chapel

“On Major War: The United States, China, and Lessons from the Past”

Both lectures are free and open to the public.

About the Lecturer:

- Elihu Professor of History and Global Affairs at Yale University.
- Author of 16 books dealing with the Cold War, Modern China, and global affairs.
- Winner of the Bancroft Prize for The Global Cold War: Third World Interventions and the Making of Our Times.
- Winner of the Asia Society’s Bernard Schwartz Book Award for Restless Empire: China and the World Since 1750.

UNION UNIVERSITY

For more information, contact:
Dr. Keith Bates
Chair, Department of History
dkbates@uu.edu