CLASS OF 1956

50-Year Reunion :: Friday, February 17

This year's 50-year reunion will feature special recognitions that are certain to renew old acquaintances, bring back fond memories, and rekindle friendships. The Class of 1956 will be honored in the Founders' Day Homecoming Chapel Friday, February 17 at 10 a.m. The highly revered 50-Year Reunion Commemorative Medallions will be presented during the chapel service to each person present from the Class of 1956.

A reunion luncheon for the Class of 1956 will be held in Coburn Dining Room of the Hyran E. Barefoot Student Union Building following the chapel service. Special highlight of the afternoon will be a chartered bus tour to the former Union University downtown campus, with plenty of time for fellowship, reminiscing and strolling the campus. Call 1-800-338-6644 by February 14 to make your reservations. When making reservations, be sure to sign up for Saturday's Reunion Brunch and Alumni Awards Luncheon when the Class of 1956 will be recognized.

Wednesday, February 15

10:00 a.m. :: G.M. Savage Memorial Chapel

Homecoming Concert Artist Derek Webb and Sandra McCracken

The Student Activities Council and your National Alumni Association proudly present Derek Webb and Sandra McCracken as the homecoming artists of 2006. Derek Webb's solo career began with the release of the critically acclaimed "She Must and Shall Go Free" in the Spring of 2003. The former wordsmith of Caedmon's Call continued his challenge to the contemporary Church with the release of "I See Things Upside Down" two years later. Derek's music is marked by its theological richness and unfiltered honesty that speaks to the next generation of Christians.

Derek Webb will be joined on stage by his talented wife, Sandra McCracken. Sandra McCracken has been called "Nashville's best-kept secret," as she blends poetic lyrics with affecting vocals, in a style reminiscent of Shawn Colvin or a young Emmy Lou Harris. Derek and Sandra will lead the homecoming chapel service at 10:00 a.m. in the GM Savage Chapel.

9:00 p.m. :: Coburn Dining Hall

Derek Webb and Sandra McCracken will perform a full coffeehouse concert in Coburn Dining Room, beginning at 9:00 p.m. Derek's catalog includes several albums with Caedmon's Call and two solo albums. Sandra has released six albums, including her latest effort, a collection of hymns called "The Builder and the Architect."
