Change of Income Appeal 2023-2024 - STUDENT

You have indicated that you (or your spouse if applicable) may have extenuating circumstances that could affect your ability to contribute to your education. Please review below for required documentation based on each circumstance -

In all cases:

- Provide a signed letter explaining the situation that you would like our office to consider. You may use the space provided below or a separate letter if more space is needed. Please make sure to address the situation, your current income, and your projected income going forward if expected to be different or change. If attaching a separate letter, please make sure it is signed.

If your current income situation changed after 2021 and is reflected on your 2022 tax return:

- Provide a signed copy of your 2022 tax return
- Provide copies of all your (and your spouse's if applicable) 2022 W2(s)

If your current income situation is more recent and not reflected on their 2022 tax return:

- Please provide the last paystub and sources of income with YTD earnings for yourself (and your spouse if applicable)
- Please complete the second page of this appeal form (Recalculation of Contribution)

If you have had an extenuating circumstance not outlined above, or have questions related to the required documentation for this appeal, please contact our office for assistance.

Large empty rectangular box for documentation.
