

2011-2012 VERIFICATION FORM FOR FEDERAL STUDENT AID PROGRAMS

Your application for federal aid was selected for review in a process called verification. In this process, Union must compare information from your application with your and your parents' (or spouse's) 2010 Federal Income Tax information, or with W-2 forms or other financial documents before awarding Federal aid. If there are differences between your application and your documents, Union's Office of Student Financial Planning will submit electronic corrections to the federal processor.
