

Occupational Therapy Program

This information is intended as a general guide. It is imperative that each student follow a program that will meet the admissions requirements at the professional school(s) to which application is to be made, and it is crucial that each student work closely with the advisor to plan a suitable course of study in preparation for the application process.

Required Courses
Written Composition I	ENG 111
Written Composition II	ENG 112
Principles of Biology I	BIO 112
Zoology	BIO 210
Human Anatomy and Physiology I	BIO 221
Human Anatomy and Physiology II	BIO 222
Introduction to Physics	PHY 213
Introduction to Psychology	PSY 213
Developmental Psychology	PSY 219
Abnormal Psychology	PSY 317
Principles of Sociology	SOC 211
Medical Terminology	PEWS 170
Kinesiology	PEWS 414
Statistics	MAT 114

GPA of Average Entering Student 3.4

Recommended: Coursework in computer/technology skills, education, technical and critical report writing, fine and performing arts, language (especially Spanish) or communication systems, philosophy, industrial arts and activity-based courses (e.g. woodworking, ceramics, photography) are also viewed positively during admissions to graduate programs in occupational therapy.

Students should accumulate 50+ hours of clinical observation in multiple settings or clinical areas of practice prior to applying for admissions to graduate programs in occupational therapy.

For more information on the Occupational Therapy curriculum contact:

- Dr. Robert Bowen (rbowen@uu.edu)